Especially chosen for discerning tastes

Domaine Gruhier Petit Chablis 2022

£60

Strikingly fine organic Chablis from Dominique Gruhier, an experienced grower in his home town of Tonnerre, just a few clicks north of Chablis, a real treat of a white wine that will make a stylish foil to salads, white meat dishes and especially seafood such as local chalk stream trout

Laventura ViuraWhite Rioja 2021

£56

Exquisite white by young South African winemaker Bryan MacRobert, from a single vineyard in Rioja Alavesa, organically farmed, barrel-fermented with some judiciously deployed new French oak, leaning towards a lighter Meursault in style rather than a white Rioja of yesteryear, to pair with seafood, lighter meat dishes, as well as a match for a touch of spice

Fruity, floral and elegant – A perfect wine for a sunny summer afternoon's sipping. Winemaker, Bryan MacRobert, puts vineyard before cellar, farming organically, ploughing by mule and fermenting with native yeast. This Viura is grown on limestone soils of the south-western slopes of the Sierra Cantabria in Rioja Alavesa, 500m above sea level.

Roseblood D'estoublon 2022

£40

Lovely aromas really reminiscent of roses, raspberries and strawberries. Excellent purity of expression on the palate with softly sweet red berry and raspberry leaf delivered with poise. Delicate yet full of flavour. Crisp and fresh, nuanced with a mouthwatering aspect offsetting the crunchy fruit yet also has a touch of creaminess and minerality underneath alongside a delicate florality all the way through.

125ml £7    175ml £9.90    250ml £14

Biutiful Malbec 2021

£55

MAAL stands for 'Malbec As Alfredo Likes' and this is gutsy for sure but not your norm for Argentine Malbec, the name referring to the grape's natural beauty in this naked, unoaked style, displaying a darker fruit profile and greater structure, blackberries, black cherries and spice flavours, crying out for beef and grilled vegetables, but its food-friendly style makes it a versatile and refined red to enjoy throughout the meal.

Stellenbosch Dorper Pinotage 2020

£54

Young winemaker Reg Holder has been quietly, confidently building a fine reputation for his Pinotage, crafted from 1970s bushvine plots in Stellenbosch and in a modern style that marries weight & depth of flavour with a lightness of touch befitting the grape's origins as a Pinot Noir crossing for warm, dry climes. Pair this with beef, lamb, spicier dishes or it is delicate enough to match with duck.

A refreshing take on this South African grape, with a clear focus on elegance. Floral perfume, juicy raspberry and blackberry fruit with hints of savouriness and spice. The fine tannin with the understated oak draws the wine in, giving length and freshness.
